Antigua & Barbuda:

Antigua & Barbuda is an island well known for its reef-lined beaches and beautiful, lush forests. Located in the Atlantic Ocean in the Caribbean, Antigua & Barbuda is a short 3-hour flight from Miami, Florida.

Antigua and Barbuda, a captivating twin-island nation in the Caribbean, it entices with its pristine beaches, turquoise waters, and historical charm. Antigua boasts the historic Nelson's Dockyard, while Barbuda offers tranquility and the renowned Frigate Bird Sanctuary.

Although new compared to its cousin islands in the Caribbean, as the citizenship-by-investment program of Antigua & Barbuda was launched in 2014; the program has gained a good reputation amongst citizenship-by-investment programs.

Antigua & Barbuda Citizenship by Investment Program (CIP)

To be eligible for citizenship, the primary applicant must be at least 18 years old, fulfill the application requirements, and choose one of the following four options. Make a non-refundable contribution of a minimum of USD 230,000 to the National Development Fund, contribute a non-refundable minimum amount of USD 300,000 to the University of the West Indies, or invest in real estate by purchasing a minimum value of USD 325,000 from an approved real estate project. The real estate must be held for at least five years and cannot be sold within this timeframe.
